STUDENT TRAVEL GRANTS

The Alaska Chapter of The Wildlife Society is offering student travel grants to attend the Chapter's Annual Meeting and Workshops from March 26th-29th, 2018 at Alaska Pacific University Rasmuson Hall in Anchorage. Travel grant applications must be received no later than midnight on February 5, 2018. Grant recipients will be selected on a competitive basis and notified no later than 15 February, 2018.

Selection Criteria:

- Full-time undergraduate and graduate students are eligible
- Student must be presenting a paper (poster or oral)
  - Priority will be given to students presenting final results and/or graduating during 2018
- Award amount will be prorated based on travel distance
  - Southeast Alaska (or out of state) ≈ $500 + Registration fee waived
  - Fairbanks ≈ $300 + Registration fee waived
  - Southcentral Alaska ≈ Registration fee waived
- Travel grant recipients may be asked to assist with miscellaneous meeting tasks.

Approximately $2,000 in travel funds will be allocated. This grant will likely be less than actual expenses (airfare, lodging, meals, and registration). The intent is to make it feasible for many students to travel, not to pay the entire cost for a few. Students are responsible for obtaining the balance needed, which may include using your own funds.

Applicants must complete 2 tasks:

1. Submit a student travel grant application online
2. Submit an abstract for the meeting

Both can be completed on from following webpage
